Deep in the woods, in that tunnel of green,
Pale ghosts peered out, frail forms were seen,
Bright wraiths that swayed in their pink or white,
And lit the road with their wonderful light.

Wild mountain laurel, if only the city
Could feel your calm, and know your pity!
Wild mountain laurel, if only you
Could light the gorge of an avenue!

Mr. Henry M. Davis

Because he has been patient with our juvenile ways for four years, because he has been helpful and understanding when problems confronted us, because he has faith in what we may become, and because without whose aid and untiring interest in all our school activities this book would not have been possible, we, the senior class of 1948, dedicate this the first volume of The Laureate to Mr. Henry M. Davis—our principal, teacher, and friend.
